PENSION FUND SEEMS IN SIGHT

Herald's Long Fight for Funds for Retired Police Seems Won.

CONGRESS RELIEVES

Sixteen Thousand Dollars to Be Available Annually for Five Years.

SUCCESS NOW ASSURED.

The Washington Herald's long advocacy of the establishment of a permanent and adequate police and firemen's pension fund will unquestionably soon be crowned with success. It is with a feeling of delight that the Herald learns that beneficiaries of the fund in fact during the next six months. It will temporarily relieve the privation and the suffering and the sacrifice of the pensioners while the Herald is fighting the last round of that battle for the supremacy of right and justice, "not without dust and heat."

The Herald more than a year ago opened its unrelenting warfare in the interests of those men who unflinchingly face peril and even death that the life and limb and property of the residents of the National Capital might be protected.

As a result of The Herald's campaign, practically every civic organization in Washington has been led to give its support to the proposed legislation. With the entire city at its back, The Herald has stirred Congress to the introduction of several pension bills. One of these has passed the Senate. It will be put a short step to victory. Before the dawn of a new year the firemen and policemen of the city will be amply provided for.

Relief for beneficiaries of the pension fund of the Police and Fire Departments of the District is at last in sight. For the next six months, if not longer, pensioners will receive their benefits in full.

It is a welcome note to the widows and orphans of those firemen and policemen who sacrificed their lives in line of duty in order that life and property in the Capital City might be saved. For six months they have experienced the effects of the inadequacy of the present pension funds. Since the first of the year, and even farther back than that, they have depended largely upon their pensions for the common necessities of life, and month after month has brought to them only sorrow and disappointment.

Some months the payments sank as low as 25 cents on the dollar, and with this decrease in income for the beneficiaries, the cost of living soared upward. It was a hard winter for the pensioners. Many of them depend entirely upon their pensions for support. To them the inadequacy of the funds has meant hunger and privation and sacrifice.

Big Sum Available.

But to-morrow a new year begins to dawn. To-night the old fiscal year will be rung out and the new one will be ushered in. The advent of the new year means that approximately $2,000,000, appropriated for the past year from the sale of dog tags, will become available for the pension funds. It is expected that this amount will be sufficient to pay the pensioners in full for the first of the new calendar year.

By that time, unless Congress enacts legislation providing for the establishment of a permanent and adequate pension fund, the money available will have dwindled considerably, and it will be necessary to cut down payments to beneficiaries. This emphasizes the need of immediate action by Congress in order to prevent a repetition of the suffering and privation caused by the inadequacy of that high body so far during the present session. If legislation is not enacted at this session, a strong fight will be waged to push through a measure at the outset of the new session. Practically every civic organization in the city will unite in an effort to have the legislation enacted.

During this month it has been possible to pay beneficiaries only 75 cents on the dollar. This is a slight improvement over payments in the past, but still it is not enough to enable them to live. At present there is a vast deficiency in the pension payments. It amounts to $38,695.50. From January to May, last year, the deficiency was $15,000. The reason for the corresponding months this year has been $23,695.50. At present the pension funds are composed of the police court fines, the dog tag revenues, the money obtained from the sale of condemned and abandoned property, and the monthly assessments levied against the members of the Police and Fire Departments.

Bill Now Pending.

A bill is now pending before the House, which, if passed, would temporarily relieve conditions. This bill was recently passed by the Senate. If it were enacted it would wipe out all deficiencies and leave a margin of $26,000 annually. It is believed by Alonzo Tweedie, District Auditor, that this surplus would be absorbed within a few years as a result of the rapidly growing obligations and the fluctuations in the sources of revenue for the funds. The annual increase in obligations amounts to about $5,000. It is hoped, however, that the bill will be passed, as it would clarify the situation for four or five years at any rate.

The bill would make available for the fund the receipts from the sale of insurance licenses, and would provide for a deduction of 2 per cent from the salaries of members of the Police and Fire Departments instead of the present deduction of 1 per cent.

President Taft Expected to Name
Juvenile Court Executive for Another Term.

Although Judge William H. De Lacy's term as head of the Juvenile Court expires to-day, no appointment has been made. The appointment is made by the President, upon the recommendation of the Attorney General.

Officials of the Department of Justice said late yesterday afternoon that no appointment had been made. A judge for the tribunal will probably be named early this week. Yesterday was the last day of actual work of Judge De Lacy's term of appointment. He was at the court at 10 o'clock in the morning, as is the practice on Saturdays, and heard the few cases that were docketed. To-day is the last actual day of his term. He will continue to serve, however, until an appointment is announced at the White House.

It is generally believed by those persons acquainted with the work of the Juvenile Court that Judge De Lacy will be reappointed. Many petitions have been sent to Attorney General Wickersham urging his appointment for another term in view of the excellent manner in which he has conducted the tribunal since its establishment five years ago.

Mr. Ellen Spencer Mussey, head of the Washington College of Law, has also been urged for the position. Her name has been formally presented to the Attorney General for consideration. Several other candidates are in the field, but their chances of appointment are slim.

DR. J. F. BILLARD
CALLED BY DEATH

Veteran of the Civil War and a
Native of Switzerland—Interment in Rock Creek.

Dr. Jules F. Billard, a veteran of the civil war, died at his residence, 2445 Eighteenth Street, yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, following an illness of several months. Funeral services will be held at St. Stephen's Church to-morrow at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery. Rev. George P. Dudley, of St. Stephen's, and Rev. T. A. Johnston, of Laurel, Md., will officiate.

Dr. Billard was born in Switzerland in 1838 and came to this country with his parents in 1851. After graduating at Harvard College in 1858 he spent several years in teaching foreign languages in this country at the University of Michigan and at Curacao, West Indies. He enlisted at the outbreak of the civil war in a New York infantry regiment. In 1861 he was appointed Acting Assistant Surgeon by President Lincoln and served in that capacity until discharged in 1862.

While in the navy he saw active service on the Southern blockade, being attached to the U. S. S. Monticello, and as part of the crew of the U. S. S. Fish Hawk. Following the civil war he lived at Laurel, Md., until he came to Washington in 1903. He is survived by his widow, Lillie K. Billard; a daughter, Miss Sarah E. Billard; and four sons, Lieut. F. C. Billard, of the Revenue Cutter Service; Charles L. Billard, and George C. Billard, of this city, and W. W. Billard, of Baltimore.

Dr. Billard was a member of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, the Anthropological Society, and the Grand Army of the Potomac.
